

Joint Informational Hearing

*Senate Committee on Labor and Industrial Relations
Senator Mark DeSaulnier, Chair*

*Senate Committee on Judiciary
Senator Ellen Corbett, Chair*

“Everyone’s Business: California’s Role In Combating Human Rights Violations in Product Supply Chains”

Monday December 7, 2009
10 a.m.
Ronald Reagan State Building
Los Angeles, California

AGENDA

- I. Welcome and Opening Remarks from Senators
- II. The Impact of Trafficking and Slavery on Real People
  - a. Kay Buck, Executive Director, Coalition to Abolish Slavery & Trafficking (CAST)
  - b. Ima, Member, CAST Survivor Caucus
  - c. Kanthi, Member, CAST Survivor Caucus
  - d. Maria Elena Durazo, Executive Secretary Treasurer, Los Angeles County Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO
- III. Human Rights Violations in Supply Chains: Defining and understanding the problem
  - a. David Kyle, Professor of Sociology, University of California Davis
  - b. Kristin Fortin, Policy Counsel, Polaris Project
  - c. Chris Miller, Advisor, Alliance to Stop Slavery and End Trafficking (ASSET)
- IV. The Role of Government, Business, and Consumers: Practical steps within our means
  - a. Tim Robertson, Director, California Fair Trade Coalition
  - b. Cody Sisco, Manager of Advisory Services, Business for Social Responsibility (BSR)
  - c. David Funkhouser, Strategic Relations Manager, TransFair USA
- V. Public Comment
- VI. Closing Remarks